

A Day of Discernment Scheduled for Saturday, March 2, 2019

The Commission on Ministry for the Diocese of San Joaquin invites you to a Day of Discernment on Saturday, March 2 from 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Modesto. The day is designed to examine the four groups of ministers in the Episcopal Church, to see how these groups work together, and to find out where we are "Called to be..." in response to our baptismal vows. The day includes a Bible Study based on the Kaleidoscope Method, an exploration of how we are called to use our gifts and talents to further God's kingdom, and a question and answer period about the ordination process to either the diaconate or the priesthood.

The cost of this event is $10 and includes morning snacks and lunch. There will be an opportunity for further study if you desire, for an additional fee.

For more information and to register, please contact Ellen Meyer at the Diocesan Office: emeyer@diosanjoaquin.org.
